Eighth Annual Marion Antiques Show

The Marion Antiques Show, sponsored by the Sippican Historical Society, has become an established institution in the Town of Marion. In its eighth year, the show is not only on the must list for August, it has come to reflect the town itself: beautiful, lively, fun and all for a good cause. On August 18, 19 and 20, some 70 dealers in fine antique furniture, garden ornaments, books, rugs, glassware, jewelry, paintings, linens, pottery, porcelains, and nautical items will display their wares in the Fish Center of Tabor Academy for the benefit of the Sippican Historical Society and its efforts to preserve Marion.

The ACE, an orchestra of 45 talented young area musicians ranging in age from eleven to seventeen, just completed its eleventh season with a Pops Concert in the new Performing Arts Center at Fairhaven High School on July 28. The annual tradition will take place this weekend — August 18, 19 and 20 — in the Fish Center of Tabor Academy in Marion as a benefit for the Sippican Historical Society. Some 70 dealers with fine antique furniture, garden ornaments, books, rugs, glassware, jewelry, paintings, linens, pottery, porcelains, and nautical items will be on hand to display their wares. Above: Local dancers Amanda Garde (kneeling) and (l. to r.) Caitlin Humphrey, William Levasseur, and Elise Rapoza will be performing "A Flower for Marissa," a short production to benefit The New Bedford Ballet Foundation which will take place on Friday, August 18 at 6:00 and 7:00 pm in the New Bedford Ballet's Alves Theater, 430 County Street in New Bedford. The ballet is about a wonderful birthday party for a girl named Marissa, who receives her most beautiful present in the form of a live dancing flower. Tickets are $6 for adults and $4 for children ages 12 and under. They will be available at the door or by calling the New Bedford Ballet at 993-1387.

Included in this edition are the Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester school bus schedules which start on page 37.

In 1886 in his novel The Bostonians, Henry James described Marion, which he called "Marmion," as: "the little straggling loosely clustered town lay along the edge of a blue inlet, on the other side of which was a low-wooded shore with a gleam of white sand where it touched the water. The narrow bay carried the vision outward to a picture that seemed once bright and dim a shining slumbering summer-sea, and a far off circling line of coast, which, under the August sun, was hazy and delicate." Marion, with its shingle-style houses and vibrant harbor, is a little less straggling in the summer of 2000, but still a place to "unbend and lie in hammocks and also to keep out of the crowds."

This gem of a show in a gem of a town draws people from throughout New England. Co-chairs Jill Creevy and Margot Arms and manager Trish McElroy are building on success. The weekend will kick off with a festive Preview Party featuring a raw bar, hors d'oeuvres, music and first dibs on the treasures on exhibit. Preview Party tickets are $40 per person or $35 if purchased in advance and will include general admission to the show on both Saturday and Sunday.

Also on the agenda is the popular raffle with tickets available in advance throughout the weekend. A tempting array of items including Dine Around Gift Certificates, and early American Windsor side chair with original finish, and early eighteenth century K'Ang Shi blue and white cup saucer, a needlepoint pillow titled "Ladies Leaving the Beach," set of three books on the Mary Celeste, and much more will be on offer.

The Marion Antiques Show loan exhibit will feature the nineteenth century mystery ship Mary Celeste who captain was Benjamin Spooner Briggs from Marion. The exhibit will include original artifacts owned by the Sippican Historical Society, such as the walnut coat tree from Rose Cottage owned by Captain Briggs, and loaned articles, notably the original sword found on board the ghost ship — stained with blood or rust? The exhibit will be moved from the Sippican Historical Society museum and set up at the Antiques Show on August 18, 19 and 20.

On Sunday, August 20, bring your treasures to Heirloom Discovery Day. A highly-qualified panel of expert appraisers will be on hand from 1:00 to 3:00 pm to appraise verbally any antique articles, from Aunt Tillie's lamp to a piece of Goddard cabinetry. A fee of $15 gets up to three objects appraised and includes show admission. Last year, this exciting event turned up an important American folk art miniature painting, which later sold for $24,000 and a Tiffany hanging chandelier valued at $12,000.

Proceeds from this immensely popular show go toward Sippican Historical Society's work in maintaining the beauty and character of Marion village. In the past, funds have gone to renovate the Post Office and purchasing and renovating the old Pharmacy Building. As a result, the village now includes a downtown with post office, Sippican Historical Society offices, museum and

This year, the Antiques Show proceeds will support phases 2 and 3 of the pharmacy project, including brick walkways, a Nantucket-style entry way and landscaping with a garden area and teak bench in memory of David Arms. The landscaping will extend to an island near the back door to improve traffic flow and replacement of the modern pole and light with one fitting the building's period. This project also includes repaving the entire parking lot.

Marine Mystery
What Happened to the Mary Celeste?

By Judith W. Rosbe

The most widely-known of all marine mysteries began right here in Marion, Massachusetts. Captain Benjamin Spooner Briggs lived in Marion with his wife, Sarah Elizabeth Briggs and their two children, Arthur Stanley, age 7, and Sophia Matilda, age 2. On October 19, 1872, Captain Briggs left his home at Rose Cottage in Marion for New York to supervise the loading of the half-brig, Mary Celeste (of which he owned an eight twenty-fourths interest), which carried cargo of 1,700 barrels of alcohol bound for Genoa. A week later, his wife, Sarah, and their two-year-old daughter joined Captain Briggs to accompany him on the trip. Their son, Arthur, was left with his grandmother in Marion so that he could continue his schooling.

On November 5, 1872, the Mary Celeste left the East River Pier in New York City and anchored off Staten Island. On November 7, she weighed anchor and proceeded on her voyage. Captain Briggs was raised in a sea-faring family and was well-prepared to undertake the responsibilities of the command of the Mary Celeste. On November 15, 1872, the British brigantine, Dei Gratia, sailed from New York only eight days after the Mary Celeste. On December 5, 1872, the Dei Gratia found the Mary Celeste abandoned but seaworthy, wandering ghostlike without master or crew in the waters between the Azores and the coast of Portugal. The vessel was well-provisioned with food and water, and the hull, masts, spars, and standing rigging were in good order. With the exception of two sails blown away, the vessel appeared fit to go around the world, according to the crew of the Dei Gratia. The last entry in the ship's log had been made several days before.

Since 1872, there has been endless speculation as to what happened to the Briggs family and the crew of seven aboard the Mary Celeste. Mutiny was ruled out, because there was no sign of violence aboard the ship. Other theories include storms, piracy, icebergs, foul play, or alcohol leakage which might have caused an explosion. In fact, all signs point to the fact that the Mary Celeste has been abandoned hastily perhaps in a moment of panic. Only the ship's papers were missing, everything else remained on board — all of their clothing, food and other provisions. Some of the relatives of Captain Briggs thought he had been confronted by a sudden and imminent peril, and fearing for the safety of his wife and child and the members of his crew, gave orders to launch the ship's life boat which was lying across the main hatch. The wind may have then picked up carrying the Mary Celeste away from their small boat, which was left alone at the mercy of sudden and violent squalls.

After an inquiry at Gibraltar, the Dei Gratia was given a partial salvage award for finding the derelict ship. To this day, the unsolved mystery of the Mary Celeste is the most widely-known of all marine mysteries in the annals of the sea. town by ComGas, Com/Electric, MediaOne, Barnes Tree Service, and VeriZon, and they also signed the appointment slip for Anne Holbrook who was selected to fill a vacancy on the Library Board of Trustees at last week's meeting.

Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Huntoon informed the board that he had been talking with Conservation Agent Laurell J. Farinon who has been diligently working on submitting a grant proposal to the state for a Community Development Grant for the Rochester Senior Center project. "She's been using a lot of personal time, so we've been keeping track of her hours," Mr. Huntoon said. "I thought we could give her comp time for her efforts."

But the board didn't agree that she should be compensated out of an account that's been earmarked for her work with the Conservation Commission (ConCom). "If she takes comp time, she's taking away from her job (with the ConCom)," Selectman Ryan said. "Laurell needs to get paid — there's no doubt about it — but we need to find where the money should come from."

The board agreed that a separate account for grant-writing compensation needs to be included in the fiscal budget for just such a situation.

Mr. Huntoon then proudly announced that Town Clerk and Selectman Naida Parker has qualified for Second Level Membership in the International Institute of Municipal Clerks (IIMC) Master Municipal Clerk.

March 21 at 3:00 am upon the direction of Rochester Police Officer Robert Small. Officer Small informed Mr. Strutski that Richard Jackson, whose address was unknown, claimed ownership of the vehicle and based on that information Officer Small had the vehicle impounded at the Rochester Police Department until the matter was settled.

According to Mr. Strutski, however, the vehicle was a team effort between himself, Mr. Jackson, and two other gentlemen. In the course of developing the car, Mr. Jackson became indebted to Mr. Strutski and the car was being held until the debt was resolved. Mr. Strutski claims Officer Small did not investigate the matter further and the Rochester Police hastily filed a criminal complaint against him, resulting in a trial at Wareham District Court and the damaging public notice in a local newspaper that he was "charged by the Rochester Police with car theft."

As such, Mr. Strutski is requesting an investigation into this matter since he feels his reputation has been tarnished in being charged with a serious felony and as a Rochester business owner he was treated with disrespect and negligence by Officer Small.

The board agreed that this warranted further investigation. "If that vehicle was impounded at 3:00 am and it wasn't there two hours later, that bothers me," Selectman Ryan said. The board unanimously voted to request Mr. Huntoon to investigate Mr. Strutski's allegations further and report back to them at a later date. They also asked that a letter be sent to Mr. Strutski advising him of their intent to research the matter further.

Selectman Cutler informed his fellow board members that he came across notice of a Pot Luck Supper and Organizational Meeting held at the home of Richard Nunes, a member of the Cell Tower Committee, to discuss the proposed cell towers on Bowens Lane this past Sunday. "I suggest Mr. Huntoon discuss this matter with Mr. Nunes as to the Open Meeting Law and potential conflict of interest," Selectman Cutler said. "These meetings should be properly posted ... I want this on the agenda next week. If there's a conflict of interest, we may need to disband the (Cell Tower Committee)." The board unanimously voted to have Mr. Huntoon contacted Mr. Nunes about this meeting.

Selectman Cutler proudly announced that Governor Paul Cellucci has approved the designation of Route 105 as a "scenic road" through the towns of Acushnet, Rochester and Marion — a measure which was initiated by the Rochester Board of Selectmen. "It only took four years to be approved," Selectman Cutler said, adding that he was pleased their efforts have "finally come to fruition."

Under Old Business, Selectman Ryan asked for a follow-up on their discussion last week over the status of the supposedly-disbanded Rochester Police Association and what has been done with the surplus funds in their account. "We were supposed to be notified and we weren't," she said, "I'm still waiting and I want to know what happened to the money collected for firearm permits? They were charging $35 (each) and I don't know what's happening ... I'd like a complete accounting."

Selectman Ryan also questioned a recent request for payment of repairs needed on two Rochester police cruisers — both of which are numbered "85" but have different odometer readings: one with some 120,000 miles and the other with over 300,000 miles. "Maybe it's a misprint, but I don't know why we'd spend money on a car we were supposed to get rid of," she said. "I want an explanation in writing."

In announcing receipt of Cherry Sheet figures from the state, Selectman Ryan also addressed a concern she has over the budget submitted for Memorial School. She said there was a substantial increase under the Memorial School line item — some $200,000 — and she is concerned that last year the school was allocated additional Chapter 70 money from the state which the Selectmen and School agreed would be used for "one-time expenses." Those additional purchases have now cropped up as regular items in the budget.

"I'm not even saying it was deliberate ... but it's artificially increasing their budget," Selectman Ryan said. "Where are we going to get the money to cover that (addition) in the future?"

In other matters, the board:

- Received a request from the Central New England Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society to route a portion of their one-day "Oceanside Bike Fest Cycling Tour Fund-raiser" on Saturday, September 9 through the Town of Rochester. The event is expected to draw 500 bicyclists between the hours of 8:00 am and 4:00 pm and the route will be staffed by members of the American Red Cross and other volunteers. The board unanimously voted to sign and approve authorization for the event as requested.

- Cited a notice from Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge that his department will be applying a surface coat on Pierce Street, Cross Road, and Morse Court on August 17 and 18, weather-permitting. The process is referred to as "micro surfacing" and Mr. Eldridge requests that automobiles not be left on the street after 7:30 am on those days and that residents refrain from turning on yard sprinklers which would create runoff onto the streets while the work is in progress.

- Noted receipt of payment in lieu of taxes in the amount of $214,423 from SEMASS for a total of 91,412 tons of refuse collected during the month of July, 2000.

- Cited notice of a Planning Board work group meeting to be held on Thursday, August 17 at 7:00 pm to

Healthy Smiles...One Step At A Time

Staying in shape means exercising regularly. The more often you work your body the less likely you are to have a problem. Your teeth need the same attention. Regular visits to your dentist can keep your teeth clean and healthy. Most major problems can be prevented if detected early. Preventive dentistry is both effective and cost-efficient over the long term. By missing routine checkups you put yourself at risk for irreversible gum disease or tooth loss. We can get you started on the right path for a lifetime of good dental health.

Rochester Millennium Parade

The week long celebration of the new millennium got off to a big start with an excellent parade on Saturday, August 12 in Rochester center. The parade, sponsored by the Rochester Lions Club, featured Cars of the Century. There were cars from a 1993 Chrysler to a 2000 Corvette. A total of sixty-two cars took part in the parade including ... Ford Model Ts from 1912 to 1927; Ford Model T's from 1912 to 1927; Ford Model As from 1928 to 1931; and a Farm Equipment Class had John Deere, Olivers, Farmall and Allis Chalmers tractors. This class was greatly appreciated by rural/agricultural Rochester residents.

Theme floats featured a Wrights Brothers replica airplane and a modern Jet aboard an aircraft carrier complete with signalman directing the landing. Another favorite float was "Reading through the Century," sponsored by the Friends of the Plumb Memorial Library. The Original Class featured a Golf Cart towing a paddle wheeheel boat on a trailer complete with passengers. In the Horse Drawn category, Eastover Farms' well-known four-horse Clydesdale Hitch and two-wheel cart pulled by a beautiful small black pony drew applause along the entire parade route.

Ribbons were presented for the Best of each class as follows:

- Marching Unit - Rochester Pack 30 Cub Scouts;
- Most Original - Elmer Lawrence's Golf Cart and Paddle-wheel Boat;
- Most Historical - George E. Church's Old Time Sawmill;
- Parade Theme - Glenn Lawrence's Wright Brothers Plane and Modern Jet;
- Farm Equipment - Bill Hubbard's 1946 Farmall Tractor Towing Manure Spreader;
- Commercial Class - Koczera Oil Company fuel truck;

Bay's shore. For some it is an early morning destination, for others a place to spend the day with young children, or again a perfect place for a late afternoon swim. A night's walk will entertain you with the sounds of Sprague's Cove under the light of the moon. All ages can join together to celebrate one of Marion's treasured locations, Silvershell Beach, in the most traditional of New England ways.

The Sippican Lands Trust is holding a Clambake to honor the community and help the work of the Trust to preserve the diversity of place that is part of Marion's natural resources. On August 17 the town is invited to Silvershell Beach for a lobster jubilee with live music and good food with plenty of refreshments. The cost of the clambake is $35 for adults and $8 for children. The celebration begins at 5:30 pm with a cash bar and shellfish hors d'oeuvres at 6:00 pm. The children's barbecue also begins at 6:00 pm. The main course of lobster, steak or chicken, with a plateful of fixings begins at 6:30 pm.

Great conversations among neighbors and friends is joined by the chance to dance to the musical blues and rhythm group The Blu Lobsta. It is a great event, a wonderful annual event. The meal is served under a tent, but again this is Silvershell Beach. You can still stroll out to the water or watch the ospreys swoop over the shallow marsh, a relaxing finish after a delicious meal. Tickets for the clambake are available now. They can be picked up at the Marion General Store, the Bookstall, and Spirits in Marion.

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

FLEA PRODUCT UPDATE

Could you update me on the flea products that are available for dogs and cats?

There are two relatively new flea treatments which have revolutionized flea control. Advantage and Frontline. Both of these products are dispensed as drops that are applied to the skin once a month. Frontline is also effective as a tick preventative. In addition, Frontline is less affected by swimming and bathing than Advantage.

Program is a tablet that prevents reproduction of any fleas that your pet acquires.

If my pets have infested our home with fleas, do I need to spray to kill the fleas?

In the past, you would have had to spray your home with insecticides or hire an exterminator. By using Frontline or Advantage on all of the dogs and cats in the house, the fleas will die when they jump on the animal.

Volkssporting in Fairhaven

On Saturday, August 19, the Walk 'N' Mass Volkssport Club will hold 5K and 10K walks through the lovely historic streets of Fairhaven. Sanctioned by the American Volkssport Association (AVA), the non-competitive walks along a clearly-marked route are free-of-charge to those who wish to participate without receiving an embroidered award patch or International Volkssport Verband (IVV) credit. The starting point for the walk is Fort Phoenix State Beach and Reservation, Old Fort Road. The walk may be started between 9:00 am and 12:00 noon and must be completed by 4:00 pm.

Volkssporting is a fast-growing activity in America. It originated in Europe more than 30 years ago in response to the need for some type of outdoor activity, free from competition and for people of all ages. Translated from German, Volkssport means "the sport of the people." The hallmark of volkssporting is to promote physical fitness and good health by providing opportunities for fun-filled, safe exercise in a stress-free Walks are usually 10 kilometers (6.2 miles) which you may walk at your own pace. There are two primary types of volkswalks: Traditional Events, which are sponsored on a specific day, and Year-Round Events or Seasonal Events, which are sponsored over longer periods of time. The latter two are self-service events where one goes to a designated starting point, registers, and follows a map and/or set of written directions of the trail. Year-Round or Seasonal Events are ideal for walkers who wish to see scenic and historic highpoints in an area while traveling throughout the country. Fee paying club members receive credit for distances they walk and events they participate in.

The AVA administers the International Volkssport Verband Program in the United States. It is a non-profit organization composed of volunteers, governed by an executive council and local members who conduct these events nationwide.

The August 19 Volksswalk in Fairhaven is a one-day event. Walkers must sign up to begin between 9:00 am and 12:00 noon at Fort Phoenix State Beach, where there is ample FREE parking. Club members wishing to walk for credit must register with a fee of $5 in advance or $6 on the day of the walk. The award for the event is a fully embroidered patch depicting one of the six cannons located at Fort Phoenix. Registration for IVV credit only is $2. The walk is FREE to those who do not wish to get credit for the award.

The route begins with a short walk on the Hurricane Barrier, which affords a panoramic view of Buzzards Bay. The walk then proceeds through the streets of this lovely coastal town. Some of the points of interest along the route include the Fairhaven Town Hall, Millicent Library, Weston Howland Mansion, H. H. Rogers' Boyhood Home, Fairhaven High School, Cooke Memorial Park, the Captain William H. Whitfield Houses, the Old Stone Schoolhouse, and the Delano home.

At the start and finish of the walk, there will be greeters who can answer any questions you may have regarding Volkssporting and how it can enrich your physical and mental well-being. For additional

MASSACHUSETTS SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENCY UNION 55
MARION - MATTAPoisETT- ROCHESTER

NOTICE TO PARENTS

Below are the school bus routes for the Old Rochester Regional School District and Massachusetts School Superintendency Union 55 for the Towns of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester for the 00/01 school year. Routes have been modified slightly to accommodate new membership. Any questions regarding the bus routes and stops which affect your child should be addressed to Timothy J. O'Connor, Associate Superintendent for Finance and Planning, at 758-2772 extension 15.

AFTER SCHOOL BUSES

There shall be after school 3:30p.m. buses on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday ONLY and daily at 5:30p.m. from the Junior and Senior High Schools. Please note that after school bus routes are based upon express service to specific stops in the respective towns. A student riding the after school bus must select a stop that is no greater than 2 miles from his/her home. In some instances, this will require prior planning on the part of parents to pick up their child from these predetermined stops.

VIDEO CAMERAS

The School Committee, after carefully considering the privacy rights of students and drivers and the district's duty to ensure discipline and protect the health, welfare and safety of staff and students on school transportation vehicles, has authorized the use of video cameras on its transportation vehicles at the discretion of school administration.

Free Poetry Contest

The International Library of Poetry has announced that $58,000 in prizes will be awarded this year in the International Open Poetry Contest. Poets from the tri-town area, particularly beginners, are welcome to try to win their share of over 250 prizes. The deadline for the contest is November 30 and it is open to everyone and entry is FREE.

"Any poet, whether previously published or not, can be a winner," said Fran Campos, Contest Director. "When people learn about our free poetry contest, they suddenly realize that their own poetic works of art can win cash prizes, as well as gain national recognition."

To enter, send ONE original poem, any subject and any style, to: The International Library of Poetry, Suite 19909, 1 Poetry Plaza, Owings Mills, MD 21117. The poem should be 20 lines or less, and the poet's name and address should appear on the top of the page. Entries must be postmarked or sent via the Internet by November 30, 2000. You may also enter online at www.poetry.com. The International Library of Poetry, founded in 1982, is the largest poetry organization in the world.

VFW Korean War Medals

As the world prepares to observe the 50th anniversary of the Korean War, GIs who helped fight it are finally eligible for a long-awaited form of tangible recognition from Korea. The Republic of Korea Ware Service Medal, created by South Korea in 1951, was recently authorized by the Pentagon as an official award for U.S. Korean War vets.

And now VFW members who qualify for the medal can obtain it through the organization. It will be distributed only to eligible VFW members who served in Korea during the war, 1950 to 1953.

PERRY FARM PATCHWORKS

Blessed are the children of the quilters for they shall inherit the quilts.

Hours: Tues. & Wed. 10-9, Thurs.-Sat. 10-5

196 Perry Hill Road, Acushnet 995-1555

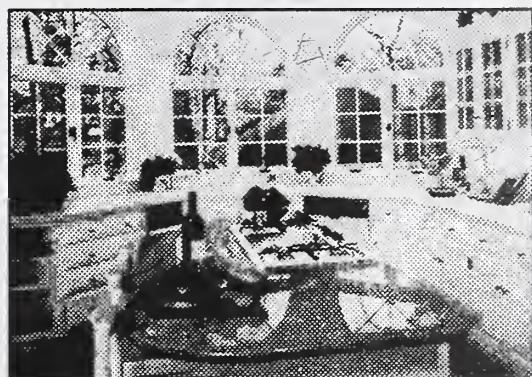

Supply, however, is limited. VFW initially ordered 2,000 medals in April, and officials believe they will be distributed quickly. Although the organization paid $17,000 — or $8.50 for each medal — eligible VFW members may obtain them for only $5.

"VFW's leaders decided this was an appropriate method of honoring the organization's Korean War vets during the war's 50th anniversary," said VFW Commander-in-Chief John Smart. "Those veterans sacrificed so the people of South Korea could live free from the tyranny of communism. Their service may have been forgotten by some, but it never will be forgotten by the VFW."

The medal's $5 fee will cover eligibility verification, processing and postage. VFW will distribute one medal to each member who qualifies. To order a medal, members must send their name, address and copies of their DD-214s or discharge papers (military orders showing eligibility also will be accepted) to: Korea War Service Medal, VFW National Headquarters, 406 W.

Mattapoisett Historical Museum

Summer Exhibit

The special summer-long exhibit this year at the Mattapoisett Historical Museum is called "As Time Goes By" and features a fine collection of time pieces from the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. It includes clocks, watches, hourglasses, calendars, almanacs, and various other means of time measurement.

It's now August, but there is still time for you to visit the museum to see the great exhibit of clocks, watches and other time pieces. Open Tuesday through Saturday, from 1:00 to 4:00 pm, the museum holds a fascinating collection, not just of time-pieces, but of Mattapoisett history.

Among other things, they have Mattapoisett's first fire-fighting apparatus — the old Highway Department's water wagon that used to wet down the unpaved streets in the summertime — and a Bible with a bullet-hole in it that saved the life of a Mattapoisett sailor

The exhibit focuses on how we have measured, calculated and kept time over the past two hundred years (and beyond). It includes a display of 43 clocks and 20 watches, as well as hourglasses, sundials, and even a model of Stonehenge. Also included in the exhibit are calendars, almanacs, and diaries which were, of course, other methods of time measurement.

The museum is air-conditioned and you are urged to visit this "special" part of Mattapoisett and learn more about not just time pieces, but Mattapoisett's past as well. For more information, please call the museum at 758-2844.

Home Rehabilitation Loans

Low-interest home rehabilitation loans of up to $25,000 are now available to home owners in Bourne (Buzzards Bay), Marion and Rochester who meet the income criteria in a new state-sponsored pilot program offered through the Wareham Community Development Authority and Department.

According to Mr. Yankopoulos, home owners may use their loans to pay for a wide range of improvements, such as upgrades to plumbing, heating and wiring, carpentry, lead paint removal, installation of insulation and storm windows, and caulking. Community Development staff members will assist home owners in applying for the loan, choosing and paying a contractor of choice, and finding additional home-related programs for which they may qualify.

The Department is administering the year-long initiative, one of two pilot programs in the state funded by the Massachusetts Department of Housing and Community Development. For more information, please call the Wareham Community Development Department at 295-9344 and ask for "housing assistance."

Hospice Volunteers Needed

The Hospice Community Nurse Association is beginning a 24-hour training program for volunteers. Hospice is a comprehensive program of care in which physicians, nurses, counselors, and other professionals keep patients comfortable and alert at home while providing emotional and other support services to themselves and their family.

Hospice staff will present such subjects as basics of terminal care, death and dying, patient care, family concerns, bereavement and spiritual issues. The training is designed to help volunteers provide friendship, support, and practice assistance to terminally-ill patients and their families. Volunteers also provide much-needed

SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE

You've signed the papers to buy the perfect home. The title has been checked, the financing is arranged, and you're ready to close. A few days before closing the seller changes his mind and decides not to sell after all. You still want to buy that home. Can the seller be forced to sell?

Yes. The legal remedy to force a party to perform their side of the contract is called "specific performance". A court can order a party to a contract to do what was promised. Before this decision is made, the court must determine that a monetary award is not an adequate remedy. Because each property is unique and monetary damages are usually inadequate to compensate for the seller's contract breach, specific performance or real estate contracts is often granted to buyers.

The reverse is not usually the case. Sellers can be adequately compensated by monetary damages if the buyer defaults (like forfeiture of the deposit). Therefore, specific performance to force buyers to complete the purchase is not granted as often. Check with your attorney.

"Still Got the Blues"

BY KENNETH J. SOUZA

MOVIES@WANDERER.COM

I'm a proud child of the rock 'n' roll era, but I have to confess a certain liberating affection for the distinctive, infectious beat and seemingly-endless searing guitar twang of good, old-fashioned blues music. Unlike rock 'n' roll — which certainly has its highs and extremely lows (virtually anything coming out of Seattle since 1990) — I'm an equal-opportunity listener when it comes to blues. Give me Memphis, Texas, Delta, Chicago... or even the little nearby music mecca of Rhode Island, which gave the world Roomful of Blues, Duke Robillard, Ronnie Earl, Young Neal, Ken Lyons ... and countless other blues greats.

There always has been something basic and primal about a stripped-down 12-bar blues tune that just can't be defined or denied. More than a catchy Beatlesque harmony, or the aggressive bombastic attack of Beethoven's finest, a great blues song is awash in emotion and realism — which probably explains why, with rare exception, most blues music isn't considered radio-friendly or Top 40-driven.

And in an era of pre-packaged teen starlets with writhing hips and bare midriffs who rely more on image than imagination, it's refreshing to play a CD or tape that hasn't been force-fed to you through heavy airplay rotation or epileptic MTV videos. Let's face it, stalwarts like B.B. King, Albert Collins, and Koko Taylor aren't out there trying to win any beauty contests. Even the late, great Stevie Ray Vaughan — who did more to push blues into the mainstream consciousness than anyone else — wasn't what you'd call a "looker."

No, blues is about the music, the moment, the feeling. It doesn't need flashy costumes, synchronized dance-steps, or sexy album covers to get its point across. You either appreciate it — feel it — for what it is, or you don't.

It's nice to know that despite a low profile and lack of radio presence at the threshold of the 21st century, blues is still alive and well in the guise of two recent releases worthy of attention from a pair of guitar masters — one a seasoned local legend, the other a breath of fresh air whose work has rapidly progressed and matured.

Rhode Island's own Duke Robillard, founding father of Roomful of Blues and formerly of The Fabulous Thunderbirds, has released a stunning studio follow-up to his great Stretching Out Live session and last year's Blues for Modern Man, his first for Shanachie Entertainment. Duke's Explorer showcases what's best about this underrated modern master ... finely-tuned, well-crafted vocals; driving rhythms; and Robillard's signature searing guitar licks tearing through the mix. Like his best early work with The Pleasure Kings, this latest installment in an already-stellar career is sure to make blues converts of even the most skeptical listeners.

But those who know Robillard are well aware that he refuses to be pigeonholed or easily categorized. Having dabbled in jazz, swing and full-throttle R&B on a variety of past recordings (including the classy jazz-flavored Swing), Robillard fuses all of these eclectic stylings into one unique, unmistakable sound on Explorer. From the opening rocker "Male Magnet" (which recalls his early great "It's My Own Business") to the brassy R&B "You Dropped That Thing On Me" to the Latin-flavored "You Mean Everything to Me," there's a healthy mix of influences filtered through Duke's unique style ... but the basic blues chord progressions remain the album's backbone.

There's seven "a little bit country" here in the form of "Lonesome Old Town," an acoustic ballad which Duke claims was inspired by Hank Williams, one of his key early influences.

Equally electrifying is the new CD from Canadian Sue Foley, the remarkable young singer-songwriter-guitarist who was first courted to Austin, Texas on the Antone's blues label and released four infectious titles — including the amazing debut, Young Girl Blues, and furious follow-up Without A Warning, both of which justifiably earned comparisons to dynamo Stevie Ray Vaughan.

Now back home in Ottawa, she's recorded Love Comin' Down on the Shanachie label, a more mature and earnest effort which is easily her best since the sophomore Without A Warning. Like Duke, Sue's clean and heartfelt vocals provide the perfect counterpoint to her gritty and raw guitar licks. And this session offers a glint of the virtuoso's slide and flamenco guitar stylings — proving that she's no mere flash-in-the-pan guitar-hero. With each successive album her sound has evolved, yet it still retains the amazingly-fresh raw power of her debut.

The opening strains of "Two Trains" rivals some of Bonnie Raitt's best slide work and "Empty Cup" (a bravura performance featuring guest vocalist Lucinda Williams) is a classic-in-the-making. Other standout tracks include "You're Barking Up the Wrong Tree," "Let Me Drive," and the obligatory instrumental "Mediterranean Breakfast," a lush flamenco guitar showcase.

Those wondering about the state of contemporary blues can find comfort in both CDs ... much as I did.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19).

Focus on a team effort and postpone an opportunity to travel. You may have to dig into your bag of tricks to satisfy a complainer.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). No gambling in love or with money. Learn by watching somebody else make a mistake, instead.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Your wisdom is in demand. Be a fair referee and don't let emotions cloud your judgment. A cooling-off period may be necessary so others can follow your advice.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Watch your money closely. If you're on your toes, you could score some deals. Unfortunately, the opposite is also true.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). Many people will be in grumpy moods, so choose your words carefully. You want to forward the action, not bring things to a standstill.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Your best-laid plans could go awry, so be flexible. Have a few spare plans in reserve, just in case. Don't put up too big a fuss; the odds are good you'll lose that round.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Pass up a luncheon date and get your work done instead. Keep your attention on business.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Don't get stuck in the middle of a cat fight. Love beckons, but if it will interfere with work, pass on that.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Don't try to run away from your troubles. You wouldn't get far, anyway. Watch as things continue to change and decide which way to go.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). A fool and his or her money are soon parted. That could happen to you if you're not careful. If the deal that's too good to be true is still available, it could be worth doing.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Everybody's trying to talk you out of getting what you want. They may have some good reasons. You'd be wise to listen.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). You may wonder which way to turn, and caution's not a bad idea. The path to take should be more obvious soon.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: Partnerships and legal matters are your bane and blessing. You'll learn a lot if you listen.

Shooting Stars

BY ROB GONSALVES

Space Cowboys. Starring Clint Eastwood, Tommy Lee Jones, James Garner, and Donald Sutherland. Directed by Clint Eastwood. Running time: 125 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13. At Cinema 12 at the North Dartmouth Mall and Flagship Cinemas in New Bedford.

Clint Eastwood's movies have become more interesting as subtext than as text. His previous film, True Crime, and his new one, Space Cowboys, are both about beating the clock — finding evidence to exonerate a condemned man before he gets executed, reconfiguring an out-of-control satellite — but they're really about beating the clock in the larger sense. These movies were made by a man (Eastwood is now 70) who has begun to recognize that, as his character says here, "the clock is ticking and I'm not getting any younger."

Space Cowboys has a somewhat dispiriting sub-subtext as well. The premise has four over-the-hill flyboys — Eastwood, Tommy Lee Jones, James Garner, and Donald Sutherland — proving their mettle one last time as NASA shoots them into space to deal with an unstable Russian satellite. The movie feels as though Eastwood is proving that he can play the same game as young whippersnappers like Michael Bay (Armageddon), and also that you don't have to be Ben Affleck to carry a big-budget summer movie. Trouble is, Eastwood is — or should be — above this degraded game. This is the man who deservedly won the Oscar for directing the great and powerful Unforgiven; he has nothing to prove to anyone.

The movie plays like an Eastwood version of Armageddon, which is sometimes for the best: Where Michael Bay was hyperactive, Eastwood is calm and unhurried; where Bay fractured his actors' work beyond recognition with his A.D.D. editing, Eastwood allows himself and his co-stars to breathe, to interact, to have moments that are unnecessary in the cold terms of plot but manage to give us a keener sense of the people we're spending two hours with. The scenes in which Eastwood tracks down his old buddies (or, in one case, old rival), and the sequences in which the four creaky men endure rigorous astronaut training, are unavoidably winning, and Eastwood never lets the old-age humor lapse into the crudity of, say, a late-period Lemmon-Matthau comedy about doddering codgers in space.

Eastwood and friends have their obstacles on the ground, of course: the younger astronauts aren't sure their elders can hack it, and Eastwood butts heads with NASA officials James Cromwell (give him another Babe movie, because he's played this same guy about ten times) and William Devane (who plays a similar cynical bigwig in the current Hollow Man). As in True Crime, the plot of Space Cowboys is the smallest thing it has going for it. And I'm not sure that a relaxed treatment of tense outer-space moments is the way to go. The last half hour — the climax we're supposedly here for — is flat-out dull. Eastwood has indeed proven that he can direct special-effects scenes every bit as boringly as a younger director.

This isn't an auspicious millennial debut for Eastwood. He began the '90s with the compelling White Hunter, Black Heart, in which he played a character based on John Huston; perhaps Eastwood should take a page from Huston and show his vitality not by directing young man's movies, but by picking difficult projects and breathing life into them.

Eastwood needs to understand that the audience that used to hoot and holler when he blew away punks has grown along with him. He's taken chances throughout his directing career, and maybe this is just his new-model Firefox — his attempt to reassure the studio that he still has commercial instincts and isn't going to withdraw totally into artsy money-losers like Bird and Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil. For now, though, we understand Eastwood can still direct, and we realize he's starting to think about his mortality. What next?
